JUDGE OF THE 39th NATIONAL SHOW OF HEREFORD CATTLE

John Kemp (GB)

Along with my brother, Tom, and nephew, William, we run Auckvale Herefords in County Durham. Founded fifty years ago, numbers currently are ninety cows plus followers. We have been fairly successful in the North of England Herd competition over the years without managing to get to the top in the National competition!

A highlight for us a few years ago was selling a horned Hereford heifer for the then European record price. We first showed at Tenbury over twenty five years ago when we had a successful day and were made to feel very welcome by the other breeders and we have enjoyed coming to the National Hereford Show ever since! I would like to thank the National Hereford Club for inviting me to judge the show, I feel very honoured and look forward to the day immensely!

TED HEWITSON PERPETUAL CUP	Awarded to the stockman in charge of the herd gaining most points.
WELFORD PERPETUAL TROPHY	For the owner of the herd gaining most points, but which is not a winner of any Championship or Group trophies.
RAY EGAN ('JOHN BULL') AWARD	For the exhibitor with the best presented cattle lines.

YOUNG HANDLERS COMPETITION

Judges: Tom & Catherine Kemp

FREE to Enter!

To take place in our Judging Ring immediately after the class judging and Championships. Entrants will enter in age order, oldest first, with different arm bands to indicate which section they are contesting:

- |      |                |  |
|------|----------------|--|
| i)   | under 14 years | Rosettes to section winners - cash prizes to all entrants.      |
| ii)  | 14 - 18 years  | The ' Dendor Memorial ' show stick to the Champion Young |
| iii) | 19 - 26 years  | Handler.  |

The judge will take into account the way in which the animal is shown and presented. Competitors MUST be correctly dressed and wear suitably protective footwear. Correct dress for the Young Handlers Competitions is either white coats or UKHY uniform. The quality of the animal(s) being handled by the young handlers will not be considered for this competition.

Entries will be accepted on the run up to the show and on show day to Laura Vincent. It will be helpful, for our planning purposes, if an indication of intention to enter Young Handlers could be given when entering cattle.
